Love's Destiny introduces Naeerah, a somewhat naïve young woman, whose entire life's schedule is suddenly interrupted by a chance meeting with a Christian rock star named Luke.

She's immediately thrown into the spotlight of being a rock star's girlfriend and all that lifestyle entails. Her father is not happy with their relationship because he fears it will take her off course. Defying her father, she moves to Luke's hometown for a chance to get to know him better, only to find out when she gets there that she doesn't fit the mold of what those closest to Luke would like to see him with.

Through a whirlwind of dramatic circumstances, she's forced back home with her parents and is separated from the love of her life. Will divine destiny unfold in their lives when there seems to be no hope?

EXCERPT FROM LOVE'S DESTINY™

"We're each only given
one lifetime here on earth.
And that lifetime is indeed what we make of it with God's help.
There are many paths that may lead us to different destinations
in our lifetime,
some good, some not so good.
If we're fortunate enough in the lifetime we're given we can find that one path
that will lead us
to our divine destiny
and that's the cake.
But if we're truly fortunate,
we can also find that one person,
our soul mate, if you wish,
who will love us unconditionally, faults and all
and journey along with us on this God-given path.
Finding our one true love
during our one lifetime makes the burdens more bearable, the adventures more breath-taking
and the sweet times like candy because we have someone to share it with.
After all, our lifetime was meant to be shared,
and that is definitely
the icing on the cake."

Review:

Love's Destiny is a good read. Author Ngozi M. Obi has great potential. Throughout the story I felt as though I was reading a fairytale. The way the romance developed between the two main characters proved how overly naive Naerah was. I have to give the author credit though. I can appreciate the innocence of love and the devotion the characters have to God. This was a breath of fresh air. I would recommend Love's Destiny because it showed that standing by your convictions and living by God's word is not a thing of the past.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

“LOVE’S DESTINY”

1. In the book Luke says he knew Naeerah was the one for him the moment he saw her. Do you believe in love at first sight?
2. When it comes to love & marriage, do you believe God has one person He’s created for us or many people who fit the bill for us to pick from?
3. What’s your take on interracial relationships since Luke and Naeerah are an interracial couple?
4. Naeerah’s father threatened to disown her if she married Luke. Do you value your parents’ opinion when it comes to who to date or marry or even just living life in general? Should it matter what they think?
